

I urge you to stop with plans for the deployment of BPL due to concerns over interference with licensed ham radio operators and their emergency nets, not to mention the interference it will cause in the shortwave bands. In an era where hams are more necessary than ever, due to terrorism concerns, anything that would interfere with such emergency communications would be dangerous.